Regional News

On Friday September 24 a new Torch Fellowship Group in Ballymena Northern Ireland was launched. We ask for God’s richest blessing on its leaders Doris, Joan, Gordon, Zuzana and Nancy and upon the blind and partially sighted people they will serve in that community.

Autumn is the exhibition/conference season and Torch has been represented at Sight North East in Newcastle upon Tyne, Talking Newspapers in Peterborough and Seniors Information Day in Birmingham. Aylesbury and Pontypridd celebrated their 30th anniversaries this month.

Torch Singers have a busy month ahead with many opportunities to exercise their vocal cords including the Thanksgiving at the end of the month!

International News

Janet Stafford is in Malawi but we have received no fresh news. She is currently in Konzere awaiting the arrival of the container we despatched a few weeks ago.

Michael Stafford is having a well deserved holiday after his two months in Malawi over the Summer.

Literature News

Torch was represented by Lydia & John Tebbutt at the Talking Newspaper Federation's annual conference in Peterborough . We gave away an audio CD with 3 days reading from "50 Steps Forward" for local Talking Newspapers to use as "Thoughts for the Week". We will be developing this feature further with them for the New Year.

Torch House News

We are thrilled to announce that Leonard Campbell, our Regional Networker in Northern Ireland and his wife Daniela are expecting their first baby. In addition Daniela has also managed to secure a part time post with the mission agency "Interserve" after many months searching for the right post.

Holiday News

Gail writes: " The Scotland houseparty was a fabulous week; we were blessed with great weather. The fun and fellowship radiated the whole holiday. John said "it was the most special week of my life, Gail made my holiday so amazing by everything being inclusive even the Scottish dancing. I danced the Gay Gordon's with Gail in my wheelchair!"
