Regional News

Our Torch stand at Keswick Convention proved once again popular with a wide range of people - young and old - with a number registering with Foursight. We now have a total of 555 people registered.

19 folk travelled up from the Bedford Torch Group to Torch House on August 20th and had a good day meeting and talking with the staff, followed by a nice lunch.

International News

3 children of blind people in Shire Valley of Malawi have been accepted for secondary school.

Janet Stafford ( International Outreach Leader) had a very encouraging time in Zambia and introduced the first ever braille Scriptures in the Lunda language to excited blind people. Praise The Lord!

Moving from Madrid to Marbella for much of the Neuva Luz operations/ equipment was extremely exhausting, but went without too much difficulty. Do pray this will prove a positive move and a good platform to build upon for the future.

Literature

'Take Another Look! ' is a new piece of free literature for people who are not necessarily Christian's - yet - describing Christian books of interest to a wider audience!

Please ring in for copies for your nearest eye clinic, residential homes, Opticians, etc.

Available in all media.

Torch House News

Finances: Torch's financial situation is still challenging although we have seen an encouraging rise recently in monthly donations.

Trevor Roach (in Audio Production) has recently returned to Torch after a lengthy bout of ill health.

Pat Lower (Training and Development Officer) and Helen Mills (General Assistant) would both value your prayers as they undergo courses of treatment following recent surgery.

Holiday News

A fantastic time was had by all at the Scottish Houseparty. The sun did shine occasionally but unfortunately not for the Edinburgh Tattoo! Nessa Graham who was there, says "the team work was brilliant-everyone was extremely helpful and supportive. Thank you! "
