Training sessions

Supporting blind and partially sighted people in churches and groups

A half-day or evening training session developed for church leaders, staff and volunteers – anyone who might be involved in welcoming and supporting disabled people at church.

A relaxed informative and practical session, with plenty of opportunities to discuss and ask questions.

Most of the training is run by Torch's Training and Development Officer, Pat Lower, who has 30 years of experience working with blind, deaf and deafblind people both as a social worker and with Christian organisations. Pat organises the training working with local blind or partially sighted people to deliver the sessions.

What can you expect?

A typical training session might include:-

- An introduction to blindness and partial sight – including definitions and different eye conditions
- Discussion about the impact of sight loss in church life
- Differing views of disability – including a Biblical perspective
- An opportunity to practice guiding safely and to experience being guided
- An opportunity to ask practical questions relevant to your church or group
- Torch's booklet "A Clearer Vision" is included.

How does it work?

Group:

Ideally a training session would be for 12 to 30 people. If your group is smaller than this, contact us – there might be other local groups who could share a session with you.

Venue:

At your church or local venue – or at Torch House, Market Harborough.

Cost:

We don't make a charge for training but a gift towards expenses would be appreciated.

Programme:

The content and timing can be adjusted to suit your particular needs.

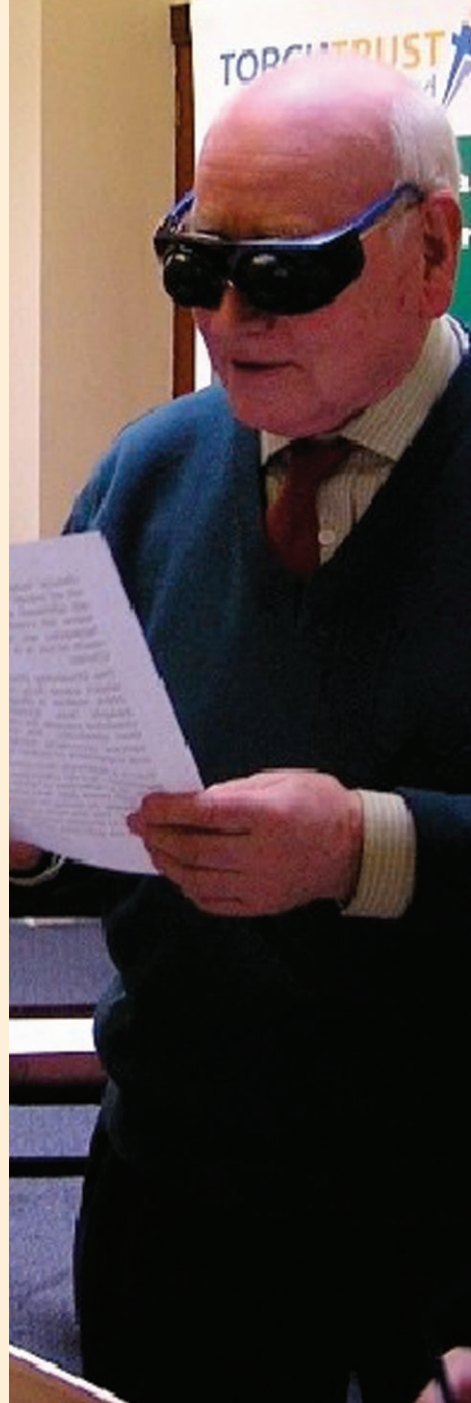

Booking:

Contact Pat Lower or Carol Nokes at Torch House on 01858 438260 or e-mail PatL@torchtrust.org for more information or to make a booking.
